

Co-pays for CHIP COVID-19 services will resume starting October 1, 2024

During the COVID-19 public health emergency, the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) waived co-pays for COVID-19 vaccines, testing, and treatment for Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) members. This will end on September 30, 2024.

For most types of doctor visits, you will have to pay a co-pay. You will not have to co-pay for the following types of doctor visits:

- Check-ups
- Preventive services
- Mental health and substance use disorder treatment services

The amount you will need to co-pay is listed on your CHIP member ID card.

Your co-pay amount was determined based on your income when you enrolled in CHIP. You do not have to co-pay for CHIP services if you are:

- Native American;
- An Alaska Native; or
- A CHIP Perinatal member.

If you have any questions, call Member Services at 1-(xxx) ____ or 1-(xxx) ____ (hearing impaired).

You can use YourTexasBenefits.com or the Your Texas Benefits mobile app to manage your benefits and update HHSC of any changes, like a new address or income.
